E. AUTHORIZATION

The answers provided on this application are representations of the person signing below. The answers given are true and complete, to the best of my knowledge. It is understood that Minnesota Life Insurance Company, (the Company), St. Paul, Minnesota 55101-2098 shall incur no liability because of this application unless and until it is approved by the Company and the first premium is paid while my health and other conditions affecting my insurability are as described in this application. I understand that false or incorrect answers to the above questions may lead to rescission of coverage, subject to the incontestability provision in the policy. If coverage is rescinded, an otherwise valid claim will be denied.

To determine my insurability or for claim purposes, I authorize any person(s), medical practitioner, institution, insurance company or Medical Information Bureau (MIB) to give any medical or nonmedical information about me including alcohol or drug abuse, to the Company and its reinsurers. I authorize all said sources, except MIB, to give such information to any agency employed by the Company to collect and transmit such information. I understand in determining eligibility for insurance or benefits, this information may be made available to underwriting, claims, medical and support staff of the Company. If I do not revoke this authorization, it will be valid for 24 months from the date I sign it. A photocopy shall be as valid as the original. I have read this Authorization and the Consumer Privacy Notice on the second page and I understand that I can have copies.

Any person who knowingly and willingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly and willfully presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

CONSUMER PRIVACY NOTICE

To underwrite your insurance request, the Company may ask for additional personal information, such as an insurance medical exam; lab tests; medical records from your insurance company, physician or hospital; a report from the Medical Information Bureau (MIB), a non-profit organization of life insurance companies that exchanges information among its members. Information about your insurability is confidential. Without your express authorization, the Company or its reinsurers may send your information to government agencies that regulate insurance; or, without identifying you, to insurance organizations for statistical studies; or may make a brief report of health information to the MIB. If you apply to a MIB member company for life or health insurance, or submit a benefits claim for benefits to a member company, the MIB, upon request, will supply the member company with the information in its file. You or your authorized representative have the right to: receive by mail or to copy your personal information in the Company or MIB files, including the source and who received copies within the past two years; to correct or amend personal information in these files; to know specific reasons why coverage was not issued as applied for; and to revoke your authorization at any time. At your written request, within 30 days the Company will explain in writing how to learn what is in your file, its source, how to correct or amend it or how to learn why coverage was not issued as applied for. You can send a written statement as to why you disagree. If we correct or amend the information, we will notify you and anyone who may have received the information. If we do not agree with your statement, we will notify you and keep your statement in your file.
