

Overview

Use this job aid as a resource to complete the Manager/Supervisor steps of the staff Probation Review (Six-Month Performance Evaluation). The Talent Administrator launches an employee probation review. The first task for the Manager/Supervisor is the Set Content Probation Review step by entering performance goals (Individual Goals) and professional development goals discussed during the onboarding process for the 6-month probationary period. The second task for the Manager/Supervisor is the Complete Manager Evaluation task where a manager/supervisor enters comments and ratings about an employee’s performance during the probationary period.

Please note: (a) If an employee is not meeting performance expectations the first few weeks/months, to contact a Human Resources Internal Consultant (HRIC) for guidance. (b) If the probation review recommendation is to extend probationary period or terminate, contact Employee Engagement and Labor Relations (EELR) at performance@montgomerycollege.edu at least 30 days prior to due date of the probation review. Review, disposition of recommendation to extend probationary period or terminate employee, and notification by manager/supervisor to employee must be made prior to the probation review due date.

Review Period 01/23/2023 - 07/22/2023
1 minute(s) ago - Effective 07/22/2023

A probationary period is that period of time that an employee is required to serve in a position to demonstrate his or her knowledge, skills and ability to perform the duties of said position satisfactorily. Probationary periods are required for all new hires, and for regular staff who are promoted or transferred into a different job class, and for temporary employees who are promoted or transferred into a regular position. (P&P 33004CP) During this period, an employee is given feedback about job performance, job and performance expectations, review of collegewide competencies, discussion of goals, and professional development.

Acknowledgement

An acknowledgement by employee and manager/supervisor can be with or without comments.

Employee Acknowledgement Statement: I have reviewed the performance evaluation on the date indicated below. I had the opportunity to discuss with my supervisor and have received a copy of the evaluation. My signature does not necessarily indicate agreement or disagreement with the content of this evaluation.

Manager Acknowledgment Statement: I have reviewed the evaluation with the employee. We have discussed their performance goals and career/professional development goals. I acknowledge that this document reflects my evaluation of the employee's performance and that it is accurate and true.

Once the employee acknowledges the probation review, it routes back to the manager/supervisor for their acknowledgment.

Both acknowledgements move the probation review from In Progress to Completed.
